

Mr. SBHS

Group Dance

A student choreographs a dance that features all of the contestants. Aim for 5-6 minutes. Make a montage of music. Don't forget about the theme!

Swimwear

This isn't your traditional swimwear competition. Each contestant has 30 seconds on stage alone to come up with a funny way to be caught at the beach.

Mr. SBHS favorites:
Greek gods, mermaids, lifeguards & superheroes

Talent (continued)

If you have a lot of contestants (8+), you may want to show half after intermission.

Formal wear

With free tuxedos rentals provided by a local tuxedo store, the contestants will look dashing!

Rhyme Time

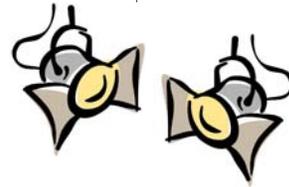

Contestants say a rhyme or rap that shows their personality or character. It must include their randomly assigned contestant numbers.

Talent

This is the time for the contestants to do something quirky or really amazing whether it's a natural born talent or something creatively thought of.

Mr. SBHS favorites:
Comedy/Sketch up routines
Musical performances
Interpretive dances

Intermission
Great time to sell snacks!

Question and Answer

A set of questions revolving around the theme are asked for the contestants to answer.

Mr. SBHS favorites:
What's your favorite thing about SBHS?
If you were given 3 wishes, what would they be?
If you could go anywhere, where would you go?

Awards Ceremony

Awards for each category are presented to the contestants and the final winner is chosen.

Mr. SBHS

South Brunswick High School's annual male beauty pageant that crowns that Senior Viking who best represents our school!

Every year in April, South Brunswick Vikings flood the auditorium to find out who will be crowned Mr. SBHS. If your student council likes the sound of fun, enjoys the feeling of money that's going to a great cause and loves to see hard work pay off, then an event like this may be the one for you. While it takes a lot of planning, you can count on your friends in South Brunswick to give you all the tips and tricks you'll need to make this your biggest seller!
